

Celtic Evening Prayer and Communion

The Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 16, 2025, at Half-Past Five o'clock in the Evening

WELCOME. We are glad you are here. We are aware that many who attend this service come from other churches and faith traditions, and we are delighted to have many who consider Saint Paul's to be their second church home. The mixture of faith traditions represented at this service makes up a community we especially cherish.

Prelude

Rob Foster

In order to prepare for worship and allow for private prayer, we ask that silence be observed upon entering and that you turn off cell phones.

At the sound of the bell, all stand.

Opening

Celebrant Father God, the star that led the Magi to the stable announced to the world that its Savior was born. Today we live in a world that is still covered by darkness, and still needing to make that journey to the stable door. May our lives reflect your light day by day, as we seek to serve where you have placed us. That we might be the means through which others can encounter Jesus Christ. Amen.

Leader Your majesty is beyond imagination,
The eternal King
high and lifted up
whom the angels worship.
Your power is beyond
understanding,
The Creator God
who shakes the heavens
yet holds us in his hands.
Your mercy is beyond
our deserving,
The Savior God
once born for us
now sacrificed in love.

Forgive the smallness
of our faith,
see the magnitude
of our need,
reach the depth
of our sorrow.
Raise us up to new life
and new ways of service
through Jesus Christ
Your Son, our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Evening

Celebrant Lord God, we are here today to offer to you our sacrifice of worship. We are here to listen to your Word, to bring to you the concerns of our hearts, and to join together in fellowship. Speak to us through Scripture, music, prayer, and silence. Grant us ears to hear, hearts to listen, and lives prepared to do your will. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:17-26

Reader A reading from the Gospel according to John.

Jesus came down with the twelve apostles and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon. They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets." "But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. "Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. "Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed after the reading.

Prayers for Ourselves and Others

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us pray for ourselves and the world.

Leader Let us bring before God all of those people and situations that are in any kind of need.

The people may add their intercessions either silently or aloud.

Leader Let us bring before God the poor, the forgotten, and those who are marginalized, as we renew our commitment to the lonely and the unloved.

The people may add their intercessions either silently or aloud.

Leader Let us ask God to use our prayerful intentions for the benefit of all who are in this room with us now, people we know and love, as well as people who are strangers to us. May we be blessings to one another.

The people may add their intercessions either silently or aloud.

Leader Let us call to mind our reasons to be thankful, as we remember our abundance and the life-giving way of gratitude.

The people may add their intercessions either silently or aloud.

Celebrant May God still our minds, calm our hearts, breathe fresh life into us, and make us instruments of peace, justice, and compassion. Amen.

THE HEALING SERVICE

Celebrant Almighty God, who inspired your servant Luke the physician to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of your Son: Graciously continue in your Church this love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All are invited to come forward to receive the laying on of hands and anointing with oil in prayer for healing for yourself, for others, for our world.

Additional Prayers of Intercession and Thanksgiving

Please sit.

During the instrumental music and anytime hereafter, you may come forward to light votives as a symbol of your prayers. After lighting a votive, please fully extinguish the lit taper and return it to the holder.

The Grace

Celebrant See that ye be at peace among yourselves, and love one another. Follow the example of good men and women of old and God will comfort you and help you, both in this world and in the world which is to come. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant Christ, the Good Shepherd, bind us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The alms basin is not passed at this service, but stands in front of the Baptismal Font.

The Offertory Music

Eucharistic Prayer

All stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is our joy and delight to give you thanks and praise, Emmanuel, God with us. We give you thanks and praise for your hallowing of human flesh. We rejoice at your light, which shines out of darkness and enlightens all who seek you. We praise you that you brought forth new life in the family of Mary and Joseph, as you do today from all who faithfully await the fulfillment of your word. We praise you that you were known first by poor shepherds and wise seekers, as you are known today by the poor and the outcast. We rejoice with the angels at your promise of peace for those who trust in you. We rejoice that the extraordinary is given birth in the ordinary places of life.

So with the angels who sing "Glory" and with all the saints and ancestors who have known you to be with us, we say together:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We bless you for Jesus, born of the Spirit's love and a woman's body and blood. We bless you for Jesus who shows us how to live the fullness of our humanity and thus become one with you. We remember Jesus who laughed and wept and felt tiredness and fear; who praised Mary when she anointed him for death and blessed a woman of the city who washed his feet with tears. We remember Jesus who touched lepers and the sick and feasted with tax collectors and sinners. We remember Christ who lives on in all who courageously and faithfully bring forth the light of his love in earth's darkest places. We remember Jesus who on the night before he died, shared a meal with his friends. He took bread, blessed it and broke it and gave it to them, saying: "Take and eat. This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me." After supper he took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them, saying: "This is my life-blood given for you. Do this to remember me." So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died;
Christ is risen;
Christ will come again.

Celebrant O God who is known to us in human flesh, send your Holy Spirit on us and on these material things of bread and wine, that they may be for us the body and blood of Christ, and we may be the body of Christ, food and life for the world. We ask these things through Christ, with whom and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be glory now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is observed when the bread is broken.

Celebrant This is the table, not of the Church, but of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

*You are welcome to stand or sit until you come forward.
To receive the consecrated bread only, cross one arm over your chest, palm on your collar.*

Music during Communion

Rob Foster

After Communion

Please stand or kneel.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May the stillness of God be yours this night,
that you may sleep in peace.
May the awareness of the angels be yours this night,
that you may be alert to unseen mysteries.
May the life of Christ be yours this night,
that you may be kindled in love.
And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

The Dismissal

Celebrant Go out into the world in peace, have courage, hold on to what is good, return no one evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the suffering, honor everyone, love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

All Thanks be to God.

Music for Meditation

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Enroll now to join the spring Called into Being Program. Called Into Being is a ten-session program to help us discern and articulate our own callings (vocations) in the church and the world. With God's help, this program will empower us to live and practice our faith with confidence and joy. More information available in Friday's Weekly Postings and in the Narthex. This spring, we are offering a weeknight group, but specific meeting times will be determined by the participants after sign-ups are complete. Email Fr. Eric (ebiddy@saintpauls.org) to register by Friday, February 21.

Join Mtr. Kimberly's cheering section to watch the Lander University vs. Augusta University basketball game on Monday, February 17, 2025, at 7:30 PM at AU. (Please note the change of date). Mtr. Kimberly will be there and hopes that several others from Saint Paul's can join her to cheer her son, #21 Noah Dunn, for Lander Bearcats MBB to a win! Tickets can be purchased at the door.

Tuesday's Music Live continues its 36th season Tuesday, February 18, with a free concert by Ben Rosenblum Jazz. More information at TuesdaysMusicLive.com or by calling the Box Office at (706) 722-3463.

Join us for our next Senior Lunch, Wednesday, February 19, 12 Noon in Tyler Hall. While gearing to retirees, anyone is welcome. No agenda; just a relaxing social time every third Wednesdays September - May. Lunch is provided but donations are welcome. Please sign up in the Narthex on Sunday mornings or on our website (a direct link is available in Friday's Weekly Postings). Contact Gene Helmich (ehelmich21@comcast.net) for more information.

Martha Arrington, artist and Saint Paul's parishioner, offers a Zentangle Workshop in the Berlin Room Saturday, February 22, 9 AM. Zentangle is an easy-to-learn, relaxing, and fun way to create beautiful images by drawing patterns. Contact Martha Arrington (marthaarringtonart@gmail.com) for class descriptions and cost.

The Augusta Chapter of the American Guild of Organists invites you to lift your heart in song at a Community Hymn Festival hosted by Saint Paul's Church on Sunday, February 23, at 3:00 PM. Beloved hymns will be sung by the Festival Choir accompanied by the organ, brass quintet, with soloists, Dr. Johnnie Felder and Melissa Schultz. The community is invited to attend and celebrate "God Is." For further information, please contact Director of Music, Keith Shafer, kshafer@saintpauls.org.

Caring Prayer gathers in the chapel on the fourth Thursday of each month at 3:30 PM (this month February 27). The group is for caregivers, anyone who is mourning, lives with chronic illness, has lost their job, or faces any kind of challenge that might be helped by love and prayer. Contact Fr. Eric for more information at ebiddy@saintpauls.org.

Hornsby Book Drive—Support young readers at Hornsby Elementary by giving a new or gently read book (all ages picture book - 5th grade). Baskets are located in the Narthex and Tyler Hall. A list of suggested titles is available. Take this opportunity to spark a love of reading in young minds and make a lasting impact on our community. For more information contact Barbara Coleman at barbaracolem@gmail.com.

More information about these announcements and other events is available in Friday's Weekly Postings, including registration and contact information. A copy is available in the Narthex and on our website; or join our email list by signing up on the website or contacting the parish administrator, at mailbox@saintpauls.org.

Make a gift—“All that we are and all that we have comes from God. In gratitude, we honor him by giving of ourselves and our gifts to care for his world.” Gifts can be made using the QR Code to the right, on-line at saintpauls.org/giving, or by mail to Saint Paul's Church, 605 Reynolds St., Augusta, GA 30901. Thank you for your generosity.

WELCOME TO SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH

No matter who you are, no matter where you come from, and no matter where you are on the journey of life — you are welcome in this church. We hope you will find Saint Paul's to be a place of refreshment and renewal, where you experience the presence of the risen Christ. We have been serving Christ in this location for over two hundred seventy years. The monuments in our church and the graves in our churchyard reflect the conflicts and complexities of our nation's and our city's history. While our building is old and beautiful, our mission is contemporary and forward moving. Here you will find a people very much connected with the questions and struggles of modern life and faith and of following the way of Jesus.
